

Willerby Granada (Free site fees for 2013 season) |

Displaying the trademark quality of its predecessors, the 2013 granada puts a fresh twist on this iconic series of holiday homes. The Granada range delivers a wide variety of model sizes that have been designed to provide maximum space in the all-important lounge and bedroom areas. Echoing latest high street trends, the neutral colour palette and elegant furnishings produce a most relaxing environment. The lounge can be transformed by the addition of Outlook French doors which create a completely different dimension that benefits from modular seating and a comfortable armchair. Angled work surfaces encircle the kitchen to provide a functional, intuitive food preparation area which benefits from plentiful storage and a full height fridge-freezer. With the choice of selecting fixed dinette seating as an option to replace the freestanding dining set, the Granada can be easily adapted to meet any family requirements. The generously proportioned bedrooms with plush headboards, dressing tables and ample storage space, make the Granada perfect for long breaks away from home. In the main bedroom, stylish wall lights and subtle, calming colour schemes create a relaxing and tranquil luxury hotel style environment. With its enviable pedigree and long association with great value, feature rich holiday home accommodation, the Granada continues to inspire
