£17,985

The SsangYong Korando 1.6 D Ultimate 5dr Auto presents an appealing option for those seeking a reliable and efficient diesel vehicle with an automatic transmission. Renowned for its performance, this model offers a smooth and effortless driving experience, making it ideal for both urban and motorway journeys. Key features such as automatic headlight control and rain-sensing aero type front wipers enhance convenience, ensuring optimal visibility in varying weather conditions. Styling takes centre stage with the Korando's striking red exterior, accentuated by body-coloured door mirrors with side repeaters and a chrome intake grille. The high gloss rear skid plate and rear spoiler with high-mounted LED stop light add a touch of sophistication. Additional features such as privacy glass and roof rails contribute to the vehicle's sleek yet functional design, while LED daytime running lights and front fog lights boost visibility and safety on the road. Inside, the Korando boasts premium comfort and advanced technology. With features like 2-zone automatic air conditioning, ventilated front seats, and a heated steering wheel, the interior offers a pleasant environment for all passengers. The BlazeCockpit Infinity mood lighting and 10.25" full digital colour cluster provide a modern ambience, while the 9" HD screen with Apple CarPlay, Google Android Auto, and TomTom navigation ensures seamless connectivity and navigation. Safety is paramount, with attributes such as dual airbags, electronic stability programme, and a comprehensive array of driver assistance systems, including lane departure warning and forward collision warning, all contributing to a secure driving experience.
